Emergency Shelter at Lebanon First EC

Once again, we are partnering in ministry with our friends at First Evangelical Congregational Church (6th and Chestnut Street, Lebanon) to host Lebanon County Christian Ministries Emergency Shelter from May 21- June 4. We need at least one male and one female adult volunteer to sleep at the church (yes, you will sleep) each night during the two weeks to act as chaperones and contact people. We arrive at the church at 8:00 p.m. each evening and are out the door by 7:00 a.m. the next morning. If you have questions, feel free to ask Pastor Jim who will put you in touch with one of our "veteran" volunteers. It's a great way to meet our neighbors in Lebanon city and to hear their stories. A sign-up sheet is available on the bulletin board at church.

Next Sunday

Friends of the Kraybill's, Abdella and Elfinesh Usman from Ethiopia, will be visiting with us next Sunday. Abdella helped the Mennonite missionaries at Deder, Ethiopia and graduated from the Nazareth Bible Academy. Now he, and his wife, are taking the Gospel to very remote tribal areas in Ethiopia and will be sharing about their work with us.
