Our current congregational spiritual practice is Encouragement.

How can we practice encouragement together? Some practical ideas:

- 1) Take time to generously share with each other your responses to the question on the whiteboard in the foyer each week.
- 2) Make use of the Encouragement Cards in the pews. Plan to write at least one encouraging note a month to those in the congregation.
- 3) Say at least one encouraging (and truthful!) statement to someone in your everyday life daily. If you need to criticize or correct someone, make it a practice to say two or three encouraging words that day also (hopefully at least one to the person you are correcting!).
- 4) Make an effort (with God's help) to believe and receive from others when they are encouraging you."
